Acxiom(R) Gets the EVI-Advantage

Wed Jul 30, 2008 12:43pm EDT

ATLANTA--(Business Wire)--e-VERIFY.COM Inc. (EVI), a leading provider of Web-based people management solutions, announced today that Acxiom(R) Corporation (Nasdaq: ACXM), has signed on to participate in the EVI-Advantage Partnership Program.

As an EVI-Advantage Partner, Acxiom's Information Security Services will offer its clients private-label versions of e-VERIFY's Web-based administrative support solutions such as talent recruitment and applicant tracking, workplace credentialing and more.

"We chose e-VERIFY because they understand our industry," said Michael Cool, organizational leader of AISS. "And they have tailored their technology to serve our needs." Acxiom has already started offering the new solutions.

e-VERIFY's solutions are Web-based and require no additional equipment or software. To ensure a more seamless user experience for Acxiom clients, e-VERIFY has developed a customized user Interface that reflects the Acxiom brand. "Our ability to customize applications for our clients is one of our best features, and we are proud to associate with a leader in the background screening field," said Devon Wijesinghe, chief strategy officer of e-VERIFY.

Launched in late May, the EVI-Advantage Partnership Program was designed to assist background screening companies, data providers; professional employment organizations (PEO), HR/staffing companies and others realize higher margins through channel opportunities with e-VERIFY.COM.
