PRESS RELEASE

California Traction and Farmrail On Track with e-RAILSAFE Shortline

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ATLANTA- July 2, 2009– Northern California's Central California Traction Company (CCT) and Oklahoma-based Farmrail System Inc. are the latest railroads to join e-RAILSAFE SHORTLINE (ERS-Shortline). CCT and Farmrail System Inc. are the 6th and 7th short line railroads to join the web-based service which facilitates railroad workforce, contractor and safety/security management

Based in Stockton California, CCT is expected to utilize ERS- Shortline for its operations which extend from Port of Stockton to Lodi, California. The short line railroad is jointly owned by Union Pacific and BNSF Railway, which are both longstanding participants of the successful Class 1 railroad service, e-RAILSAFE.

Headquartered in Clinton, Oklahoma, Farmrail System Inc. will use ERS-Short Line across its service area located in Western Oklahoma. Farmrail System, Inc. is a holding company for Farmrail Corp and Grainbelt Corp.

Employees and Contractors that are required to participate by these railroad employers, subscribe to ERS-ShortLine, enroll in the appropriate program and complete the required tasks to determine their eligibility to access key worksites and facilities.

The railroads and their contractors can manage the entire process from one, easy-to-use, web-based platform. No additional software or equipment is required and the system can be securely accessed from any PC, anywhere at any time.
