e-VERIFILE Unveils Updated Look

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ATLANTA- September 18th, 2007 –Atlanta-based e-VERIFILE.COM Inc., is pleased to announce that it has updated the front end of its main website www.e-verifile.com. The revised site features a totally fresh appearance and format, and provides easier access to information on the company's risk assessment products and services. The changes reflect the company's new branding and commitment to providing end-to-end solutions that streamline routine administrative tasks.

"Our new site reflects the new vision the e-VERIFILE has for our company, and to better assist customers and prospects truly understand that we are not just a background screening company," said institute Chief Strategy Officer, Devon Wijesinghe. "Our company has become a single source solution for a company's risk assessment needs, and we look forward to expanding that platform with the successful launch of several of our new services."

The changes will not affect client's ability to log into the system from any PC with just a username and password. The backend secure site through which clients order risk assessment reports and products will remain the same.
